RIMMER & ROETER CONSTRUCTION BUILDING STRENGTH SINCE 2000 LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

(Cashmere, WA)- Rimmer & Roeter Construction, a Cashmere based construction company launches a new website this month. The construction company, co-founded by Jamie Rimmer and Steve Roeter on April 13, 2000, employs skilled craftsmen, project managers, and supervisors to fulfill diverse builds in commercial, residential, metals, industrial, and healthcare.

Rimmer & Roeter Construction is known as a diligent, honest, and hard-working company in our region. Due to their partnership with numerous architects and relationships with other vendors, articles of their homes have been featured in Pacific Northwest Magazine, Western Art and Architecture, and Sunset Magazine \(2015\).

Thanks to JBe Marketing Group, their new website features Rimmer & Roeter's specialty areas filled with a gallery of photos from their past and current work. Drone videos from a variety of projects will capture your attention and will "provide viewers the opportunity to see the complex builds we can offer," states Jamie Rimmer, co-founder of Rimmer & Roeter Construction.
